David Rausche Joins SPARTA Composite Products as Manager of Programs

SAN DIEGO, February 19, 2008 – SPARTA Composite Products, a business unit of SPARTA, Inc., is pleased to announce that David Rausche has accepted a position as Manager of Programs, reporting to Paul Oppenheim, VP and General Manager. David will replace retiring veteran Mike Vairo. In this capacity David will manage the newly formed Program Management Team and oversee all SPARTA programs.

Mr. Rausche, a native of upstate New York, received a B.S. degree in Business Management from Oregon State University and a Masters degree in Applied Science from Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, CA. David spent over 10 years as a Naval Officer and has been deeply involved in Project and Program Management in the aerospace and defense industry since leaving the Navy in 1999. Previously he was Program Manager at ATK Composites, REMEC Defense & Space, and L-3 Communications.

Paul Oppenheim said, "We are delighted to have David as a member of our management team. His background and experience in staff development and program management will be vital to SPARTA Composites' continued growth and success."
